NO PICPC MEETING THIS MONTH

From Your Outgoing Steering Committee Chair

Hello Everyone,

We have come to the end of another year. It has been an honor to serve these last two years as your Steering Committee Chair. I have learned a lot about service and myself. As with our principles of recovery, practicing the principles of our Traditions takes patience and effort. Be careful what you pray for.

The great thing about A. A. service is that there is no limit to what we can do. I encourage anyone to serve at Intergroup, Area, and District levels. Learning these Traditions and being able to use that knowledge both at home and work has been such a blessing.

I look forward to seeing you all at the Alcathon. I hope you have a wonderful New Year.

Thank You For Letting Me Be Of Service,

Adrian B.

SRI Chair

Did you know you can contact Steering Committee members directly? We'd love to hear from you with any criticisms, comments or funny stories you may have.

We particularly like funny stories!

Tradition Twelve

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

When I got to AA, principles before personalities was easier for me to get my arms around than anonymity. I didn't care when I got here about keeping my own anonymity; I was coming out of incomprehensible demoralization and I wanted life! I remember however, the sense of humility that moved in me as I truly understood I had been given new life. Now yrs. later, I am grateful for the opportunities to learn as I work the principles in all my affairs. I agree that understandable humility, in action, is what saves us from our ego self, allowing the spirit of Unity in and allowing us to safely carry the message to another suffering alcoholic. There is no need to know my name or bring attention to myself. There is no need for me to name others, breaking their anonymity. All of that would be a distraction from the lifesaving message within principles before personalities.

Tradition Twelve Checklist

- Have I a personal responsibility in helping an AA group fulfill its primary purpose? What is my part?
- Why is it a good idea for me to place the common welfare of all AA members before individual welfare? What would happen to me if AA as a whole disappeared?
- When I do not trust AA's current servants, who do I wish had the authority to straighten them out?

Concept Twelve

"The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle: that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personally punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government; that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action. (short form)."

Of all the concepts, this is probably my favorite because of the 'General Warranties'. Webster defines 'warranty' as a statement of promise or a written guarantee. Some in the fellowship see the Warranties as the "A.A. Bill of Rights" for the membership. The basic principles found in each warranty apply to our home groups as much as they do to the General Service Conference itself. The principles of the 6 vital warranties that this Concept contains help to bind the Conference to the grassroots of A.A. by acting as a check against the natural desires for wealth, power and prestige. Bill W. called these warranties counsels of prudence. They can also be seen as representing sacrifices we all have to make in order to get along and carry the message. In this sense they are like the 12 Traditions, and like the Traditions they can be applied to A.A. services at any level.

"Sobriety gave me my life back, and for that I am forever grateful"

Kris Kristofferson Sober since 1998-RIP Sep 2024

Concept Twelve Checklist

- How do we guard against becoming a 'seat of perilous wealth and power'?
- Do we try to reach important decisions by thorough discussion, vote and, where possible, substantial unanimity?
- Are we careful to avoid public controversy?
- Do we always try to treat each other with mutual respect and love?

Treasurer Report – James - P&L, Balance & Group Contributions:

2025 Budget (things to consider going into 2025) : The 2024 Round-up was not as financially successful as in years past, however it was the 4th most successful. 2025 brings competition from numerous round-up options and the AA International Conference in July. 2.) Stores sales are down. One year ago, the cost of the Big Book and all conference approved literature was raised 20%. At that time, SRI had an overage. As a group, we voted to absorb the cost and keep the price of all conference approved literature the same for 6 months. It ended up being held for 1 year. It is now appropriate to raise the sales price by 20% 3.) Office Manager transition. The budget allows for the office manager's position to be competitive.

7th Tradition – Read Self Support Card – Adrian. $38.00 collected in-house.

Central Office Report –Terry L. – All phone shifts are covered. Thank you, volunteers! Please announce the Office Manager position to your home groups and any meeting you're attending. Currently the in office and office hours phone shifts are filled though that may change. All TAS shifts are filled and that's likely to change as well so watch this space! I am so very grateful for the SRI volunteers! Thank you!!

Please update Zoom codes and passwords with Central Office, CTRL + Click to follow this link: <https://aaphoenix.org/groups/group-update/> or from the home page of the SRI website click on meetings, then click on meeting update form. www.aaphoenix.org

Please remind groups to buy literature & chips from SRI office to help support your local AA Intergroup so that we can keep the hand of A.A. there for all who need it.

We have 1,600 meetings per week here in the Valley!
Keep it fresh—go to one you've never been to before!
