SALT RIVER INTERGROUP

“These Twelve Concepts therefore represent an attempt to put on paper the why of our service structure in such a fashion that the highly valuable experience of the past and the conclusions that we have drawn from it cannot be lost” – Bill W. 10th General Service Conference -1960 New York, New York.

Concept 3

“To ensure effective leadership, we should endow each element of A.A. –the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives—with a traditional “Right of Decision.”

There will be times where we’ll need to trust our trusted servants to make decisions without a group or service entities’ approval. Concept 1 & Concept 2 by themselves cannot ensure the smooth operation of A.A. business. There will be times that the full facts (additional background information) and debate are not available to groups, will help further inform our trusted servants and their decisions (and their votes on our behalf).

Bill W. warns against using “The Right of Decision” as an excuse for failure to make proper reports of actions taken; or for exceeding a clearly defined authority; or for failing to consult the proper people before making an important decision. But he concludes: “Our entire A.A. program rests squarely upon the principle of mutual trust. We trust God, we trust A.A., and we trust each other.

Those decisions may ultimately differ from the original consciences given to them when we ask them to vote on our behalf – but those differently made decisions are vital in allowing them to be more than mere messengers. They have a brain, let’s let them use it.

Check List for your Groups:

- Do we understand what is meant by the “Right of Decision”?
- Do we grant it at all levels of service, or do we “instruct”?
- Do we trust our trusted servants – G.S.R., D.C.M., area delegate, the Conference itself?

“I chose sober because I wanted a better life. I stay sober because I got one.”
Rick W. 05/31/83

From Your Steering Committee

Tradition Three

Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought A.A. membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an A.A. group, provided that, as a group they have no other affiliation.

If I look solely at the tradition's short form "The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking." and don't dig further, I would share something along the lines of 'This makes sense... since we are anonymous, who could be in charge of membership anyway?'

There's nothing wrong in that statement, I mean who would be in charge of that? How would or could it be enforced? But that is only a piece of what Tradition 3 is really about.

Tradition 3 allows me to make a decision. I decide if I am an Alcoholic. I decide if I want to do something about that. And I decide if I want to be a part of Alcoholics Anonymous. No one chooses that for me.

In the long form, AA goes further. It also points out that when two or more Alcoholics gather for the purpose of sobriety, they can call themselves an AA group. I look at that sentence and notice the words 'gather for the purpose of sobriety'. What does that mean? It means that when 2 or more people gather together and the purpose is sobriety – no other purpose being present, that they may call themselves an AA group.

The long form ends by emphasizing the group can have no other affiliation. What does that mean? Affiliation can be defined as being closely associated with or connected to a person, place, group, political party, etc. This takes us back to our primary purpose. Our primary purpose is to help alcoholics to achieve sobriety. The danger of connecting ourselves to an outside person, place, group, etc. would be that we now have to decide if we want to be a part of that new thing. That new thing that could stand between me and the fellowship... between me and sobriety.

This tradition feels like freedom to me. I decide to be part of and while I'm here, the whole point is that decision. The decision that I am an Alcoholic and that I want to be sober. The traditions, much like the steps, meet me where I am.

I am Alison, an Alcoholic.

Meeting ID: 976 6139 5578 Passcode: 397657 & In person at SRI Central Office 3215 E. Thunderbird Rd, Phoenix 85032

Tradition Three Checklist

The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking.

- In my mind, do I prejudge some new AA members as losers? Is there some kind of alcoholic whom I privately do not want in my AA group?
- Do I set myself up as a judge of whether a newcomer is sincere or phony?
- Do I let language, religion (or lack of it), race, education, age, or other such things interfere with my carrying the message?
- Am I overimpressed by a celebrity, a doctor, a clergyman, an ex-convict? Or can I just treat this new member simply and naturally as one more sick human, like the rest of us?
- When someone turns up at AA needing information or help (even if he can't ask for it aloud), does it really matter to me what he does for a living? Where he lives? What his domestic arrangements are? Whether he had been to AA before? What his other problems are?

Steering Committee Member Spotlight

Keep Trudging!

Many years ago, after hitting rock bottom, I embarked upon a journey of recovery. Prior to this point of surrender, I was homeless, eating out of trash cans, suicidal, jobless, and hopeless. I had run away from all my friends and family. Everclear alcohol had become my only companion.

Entering the rooms of AA, I was quickly introduced to our 12-Steps, 12-Traditions, and 12-Concepts. I heard people talk about "God, as I understand God." I heard about "Sponsors" and "service work". I heard "Keep coming back!" The list went on. . . Yet, I realize that while I was hearing these things, I had no clue on what it meant or HOW to apply what I heard. I just knew my life was an absolute mess and my solutions were not working. However, while I had a desire to stop drinking, I could not put down the drink. . .two years of chronic relapse and more consequences followed me.

March 10, 1986, was my new beginning! This was the day I surrendered and screamed HELP ME! Coming-to in a trash dumpster, my moment of truth awoken me to the reality of how much my life was being directed and covered-up by alcohol.

Re-entering the rooms of AA, I was introduced to my sponsors. They guided me through the Big Book of AA, pushed me through understanding and applying the 3 legacies of recovery and most important, showed me that recovery was possible even for me. They showed me I had to come all the way into the rooms (fellowship), do the work (service), and build a connection with God, as I understood God (unity). They helped me build a solid fountain sufficient to help me trudge through whatever was thrown in my path.

Generally, in meetings we read A Vision For You. In this, it states "Abandon yourself to God as you understand God. Admit your faults to Him and to your fellows. Clear away the wreckage of your past. Give freely of what you find and join us. We shall be with you in the Fellowship of the Spirit, and you will surely meet some of us as you trudge the Road of Happy Destiny". I did not understand what it meant to trudge, so I researched it. Trudge is defined in Websters as "walk slowly and with heavy steps, typically because of exhaustion or harsh conditions". During my journey of recovery, I encounter moments where I feel exhausted, heavy, or defeated emotionally. It is during these times, while resuming alcohol could provide temporary relief, it will never solve my spiritual malady. Instead, I must remember what I was taught about going to any length and to keep doing the foundational work necessary to trudge. This sometimes-means walking slowly, using intentional steps, and being determined to let God and the fellowship of our program carry me! I must focus on staying in the middle of the herd, picking up my phone, asking for help and applying HOW (honesty, open-mindedness, and willingness).

In conclusion, no matter what the moment brings, remember the importance of not stopping. KEEP TRUDGING! Come all the way in, hang on to a seat, do the work and let God manage the outcome! We will surely meet as we trudge the Road of Happy Destiny.

In love and service,

Robbin B.
