From Your Steering Committee

Tradition Eleven

Our relations with the general public should be characterized by personal anonymity. We think A.A. ought to avoid sensational advertising. Our names and pictures as A.A. Members ought not be broadcast, filmed, or publicly printed. Our public relations should be guided by the principle of attraction rather than promotion. There is never need to praise gests that we show the newcomer and the ourselves. We feel it better to let our friends recommend us.

Tradition Eleven reminds me that I am not that great and not that small. It gives me the ability to be a 'right-sized' part of a beautiful group of people instead of the feardriven man, painfully trying to be the attention grabber. It helps me to be grateful for the gift of sobriety rather than to take credit for my victory over alcohol. My few lifelong friends marvel at my joy of living as compared to the know-it-all they met. That praise goes to a loving God and the program of A.A.

Our Eleventh Tradition reminds us that we are responsible to represent Alcoholics Anonymous through our actions, not through preaching or public pronouncements. It sugalcoholic who still suffers precisely what helped us to become happy, joyous and free. Through anonymity we learn humility, and through humility, grace.

Dave B.

Question

What would AA be like if we were not guided by the ideas in Tradition Eleven? Where would I be?

Tradition Eleven Checklist

Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio and films.

- Do I sometimes promote AA so fanatically that I make it seem unattractive?
- Am I always careful to keep the confidences reposed in me as an AA member?
- Am I careful about throwing AA names around-even within the Fellowship?
- Am I ashamed of being a recovered, or recovering, alcoholic?
- What would AA be like if we were not guided by the ideas in Tradition Eleven? Where would I be?
- Is my AA sobriety attractive enough that a sick drunk would want such a quality for himself?

Central Office will be closed November 10th in observance of Veterans Day

Concept Eleven

The trustees should always have the best possible committees, corporate service directors, executives, staffs, and consultants. Composition, qualifications, induction procedures, and rights and duties will always be matters of serious concern.

This concept focuses on the several principles that apply to A.A. World Services, Inc. and the A.A. Grapevine, Inc. These principals include the following ideas:

1. When it comes to active service, it is important to establishing one competent executive with ample freedom and authority to do his job/service.

2. Paid workers should be compensated just as s/he would be for similar services or abilities in the commercial world. To underpay works is simply bad for business. Therefore, if the funds are available, we should compensate our works well.

3. It is important to rotate the positions/ responsibilities of paid workers. In the spirit of rotation, at A.A.'s General Service Office, most staff members' assignments are changed every two years. This is with the exception of office management

4. As established in concept 4, Full "Participation" of paid workers is highly important. This idea emphasizes that paid workers should enjoy a status suitable to their responsibility, just as our volunteers do. Reprint from November 2020

HYBRID!!! PI/CPC meets on the 4th Tuesday of the month at 7:00pm; Meeting ID: 976 6139 5578 Passcode: 397657 & In person at SRI Central Office 3215 E. Thunderbird Rd, Phoenix 85032

Concept Eleven Checklist

The trustees should always have the best possible committees, corporate service directors, executives, staff, and consultants. Composition, qualifications, induction procedures, and rights and duties will always be matters of serious concern.

- Do we understand how the roles of nontrustee directors and nontrustee appointed committee members help serve and strengthen the committee system?
- How do we encourage our special paid workers to exercise their traditional "Right of Participation?
- Do we practice rotation in all our service positions?

Steering Committee Member Spotlight

Faith Without Works...

Have you ever really considered what 'faith without works is dead' means? Bill writes about it so eloquently and passionately in Language of the Heart, To Serve is to Live, p 129. Please, please read it.

It reminded me of when I attended the International Women's Conference of Alcoholics Anonymous earlier this year. I heard a woman speak of her willingness to be uncomfortable as being the most important tool in her spiritual kit. This made a profound impact on me and I wondered if I was there simply to hear that statement. You see, if I'm not willing to be uncomfortable then it doesn't matter how strong my relationship with my HP is because I'm not going to lean into it. Also, by avoiding discomfort or seeking only ease, I will stagnate because no matter how much I dislike it, pain really is the touchstone of growth.

I don't know if you can identify but one of my most obvious sources of discomfort is other people and it is working with others in the service of Alcoholics Anonymous that I have felt the itchiness and the bitchiness that can easily be described as discomfort. Bill also wrote that "the aim of our services is to bring sobriety within reach of all who want it."1 He continued with "an AA service is anything whatever that legitimately helps us to reach fellow sufferers."2 'Aaaah, that's brilliant', I hear you thinking, 'I attended a meeting yesterday and spoke kindly and encouragingly to a newcomer. Service done.' He goes on to say that while the 12th Step call is the greatest of AA services, consider also the publicity that created the prospect's interest, the petrol used to get her to the meeting, the meeting place, the pamphlets and books she was given at that meeting.

Service in Alcoholics Anonymous has not only brought me discomfort (and the growth inherent therein!) but also an enormous amount of satisfaction, a feeling of involvement that lets me know I'm fulfilling my use and purpose. I attended a meeting of PI/CPC last night (you really should come along!) and it was uncomfortable, itchy, encouraging and fulfilling.

When I arrived at AA I was busily avoiding everyone and everything possible, in fact, avoiding life itself. And I felt dead inside. I was afraid. You showed me a different way, one that promised and delivered so much more. I think Kahlil Gibran said it best this way, "...if in your fear you would see only love's peace and pleasure...then it is best that you pass out of love's threshing floor, into the seasonless world where you shall laugh, but not all of your laughter, and weep, but not all of your tears." I've been there, done that. I was dead inside. Today I'm willing to be uncomfortable so that I can truly live. What are you doing in service today and does it only give you satisfaction or does it also give you pause for thought and growth?
