SALT RIVER INTERGROUP

The New Centurions

In February, 1983, after 21 years of mostly daily drinking, I lost almost everything but still barely held on to my job in police work. It was just a matter of time that I would have done something serious enough to get fired from my job, and probably would have wound up in jail or prison. I lost family, friends, my home, and everything else that I owned; all caused by my alcoholism. As Bill Wilson explained in Step 1 in the 12 & 12, I had hit bottom.

I began going to AA meetings at the Old Sahuaro Club mostly. However, I also attended meetings at Crossroads East, the Arid Club, the Pehlms House and the Maryvale Group. I was totally paranoid about my anonymity, and the last the thing I wanted was for people in AA to find out what I did for a living. I felt there was no way I could ever talk about my job at any of the AA meetings I was attending. With about a month of sobriety, I was talking to my first sponsor, Bob G., about this. Bob had a friend, Russ L., who was a detective on the Phoenix Police Department. Six months prior, Russ & three other law enforcement officers started an AA group called the New Centurions. All of its members either worked for or were retired from a law enforcement agency. Bob called Russ and put me on the phone with him. He tried to convince me to go to their meeting, but I was too afraid of who would be there. Russ convinced me to meet him at his house, and we talked for two hours drinking coffee. Russ won over my trust, and I agreed to attend the meeting. Russ was one of the original founders of the group.

When I walked into the meeting, there was a guy I worked with. I also met everyone else, all alcoholics, who either presently worked in law enforcement, or retired from it. This group had an interesting cast of characters. Some were pretty strange. However, all of the Oldtimers in this group spent hours with me in coffee shops, giving me a lot of tough love. I consider myself still sober today because of the wisdom drilled into my head by these giants in sobriety.

Every day I would go to work and witness homicides by guns or knives, serious assaults with weapons, sexual assaults, babies drowning in pools, many drunk people on alcohol, heroin, crystal meth, PCP, LSD, you name it. Many of these people were very violent who wanted to kill everybody in their path, including me. Experiencing these things everyday accumulated over and over. After surviving each work day, my only way to deal with it was to get drunk after work. After I sobered up, I was too paranoid to discuss what I experienced at work at any AA meetings I attended, until I found New Centurions. It was the only meeting that I went to that I could talk about my job, and how it affected my alcoholism.

The Oldtimers that had the most impact on my early sobriety are as follows. There was Andy S., a retired investigator with the Cook County States Attorney's Office in Chicago. Andy died of cancer, after fighting the disease for over a year. He used that year to speak at speaker meetings all over the valley, sharing his wisdom to alcoholics everywhere in the Phoenix metro area.

There was Jim R., a retired Chicago Police Officer, who headed the Chicago P.D. Alcohol Program, helping many Chicago Police Officers before he retired. Jim was pretty raw when he described what alcoholism does to us and everybody around us. Some of it was too much for some people, but everything he said was true.

Then there was Jim S., a retired New York City Police Officer, whose alcoholism was so bad, they took his gun away, and removed him from working the street. New York City already had an alcoholism program for police officers, run by a Catholic Monsignor. They sent Jim to a detox unit in a New York City hospital to dry him out. Then he was sent to a farm in upstate New York, where the worst alcoholics were sent. They got Jim sober, and he was returned to duty to complete his career. After retiring, Jim went on to 12 step numerous alcoholics in Phoenix, including me. Jim always talked about how we alcoholics have a built-in forgetter, meaning we forget how bad we were when we started feeling better.

Then there was Tom R., a retired prison guard at the Arizona State Prison. He used to talk about going in his back yard many times with his gun to commit suicide, but always changed his mind because he didn't want to fall in all the dog feces on the ground. Arizona discontinued using the Gas Chamber, which previously had been used to execute death row inmates. Tom said he would be so hung over from drinking the night before his work day, he would go hide in the unused gas chamber and go to sleep. Tom had the most bizarre stories about his alcoholism.

There was Jerry K., an investigator for the Motor Vehicle Department, and one of the original founders of the group.

There was Bud P., a Prosecutor with the County Attorney's Office.

There was Wil T., a retired Phoenix Police Officer, who became a Federal Corrections Officer. He was one of the funniest guys in the group, and every time he showed up at the meeting, he would make me laugh hysterically.

There was Ron S., a retired Maricopa County Deputy Sheriff. He was also very funny and made me laugh hysterically. Although we seriously discussed our alcoholism, and what it did to us, this group also allowed us to laugh at some of the things we encountered on our jobs.

All of these giants in my life, who made a tremendous impact in my early sobriety, have passed away. However, I will never forget what they did for me.

The following Oldtimers are still around. They all had a great impact on my early sobriety, and continue to help me today with their continued wisdom

There is Gil M., a retired Glendale police officer. He is also one of the original founders of the group. All the other founders of the group have passed away. Gil has been a good friend for over 40 years.

There is Mike S., a retired Phoenix Police Detective. Mike was the best man at my wedding. After going through two previous divorces during my drinking and early sobriety, I decided to get married a third time, to a woman in AA this time around. Nothing changed. I was still unable to be in a relationship, and I was close to causing my third divorce. I was telling this to Mike over dinner one night. Mike had me read one of the stories in the back of the Big Book, which is the chapter on Acceptance by Dr. Paul O. When I read what he had done to his wife, it was like I got hit over the head with a hammer. I realized I was doing the same thing to my wife, and I needed to change the way I operated. My wife and I celebrated our 33^{rd} wedding anniversary a few months ago. I give Mike the credit with saving my marriage, although he doesn't like me to give him the credit. Mike has been my friend for 38 years.

There is also Dave W., also a retired Phoenix Police Detective. Dave & I always lived close to each other. So we carpooled together to central Phoenix to attend the meeting. We did a lot of talking. Dave became the shoulder I used to dump all my complaints on over the years. He has also been my friend for 38 years.

So out of all the New Centurion Oldtimers, only Gil, Mike, Dave and I are still alive. We're getting up there in age. However, we're all still going to AA together.

All of the Oldtimers in the New Centurion Group that I have previously mentioned in this story have played a major impact in my early sobriety. I am only still sober today, and have a great life today, because of all the help that all of these Oldtimers have done for me over all of these years. I have so much gratitude that all of these Oldtimers have been part of my life.

Jerry L.

From Your Steering Committee

Tradition Ten

No A.A. Group or member should ever, in such a way as to implicate A.A., express any opinion on outside controversial issues – particularly those of politics, alcohol reform, or sectarian religion. The Alcoholics Anonymous groups oppose no one. Concerning such matters they can express no views whatever.

If each of our Traditions were lead singers, the Tenth Tradition would be their back-up band. Bill Wilson even called it our most "vital" tradition. Why is this?

As individuals, we AAs believe in issues strongly. Our highly sensitive emotional natures drive us to be deeply passionate about our beliefs. Our need to be right can easily overtake us. And, oh boy, do we like to carry judgments and grudges. In this, except for the highly sensitive emotional part, we are really no different than the general public. Unlike the general public, we voluntarily belong to a life-sustaining fellowship. In the fragmented world in which we live, how to sustain that life-giving force is the question. Within our worldwide fellowship there might be a thousand ideas about what the problem with the world is and 5 million solutions. So what can we AAs agree on?

We can agree that unity is essential for our personal survival. We can agree that God, not our leaders, will best design and direct our group purpose. We can agree that, though we get to run our group as we see fit, our purpose must be to carry a unified message of recovery to alcoholics who still suffer. Regarding our message, we can agree that using the A.A. name to endorse, finance or otherwise support a non-A.A entity or idea misrepresents A.A. and leads to distrust. Likewise, we are agreed that no one person, by affiliation or otherwise, should represent A.A. at the media or broadcast level. And we agree that none of us should ever receive pay to personally carry this message, lest it distort the message and destroy the messenger. Most importantly, we agree that within A.A. we are all equal, using the principles of our Steps and Traditions, instead of personalities, to guide our decisions.

Tradition Ten makes agreement possible. It allows us to have the broadest of membership guidelines (Trad. Three). It provides a safe haven when the world around us may seem in disarray. Tradition Ten teaches us to seek a common solution; to set our personal beliefs and opinions at the door so we can enter the world of the spirit when we walk into A.A.

Questions Do I ever give the impression that there is an "AA opinion" on doctors? Psychiatrists? Churches? Hospitals? Jails? Prescribed meds? Other drugs? Vitamins? Other 12-Step programs? Al-Anon? Federal or state governments?

Can I honestly share my own personal experience concerning any of these without giving the impression that I'm stating "AA opinion"?

Tradition Ten Checklist

Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.

- Do I ever give the impression that there really is an "AA opinion" on Antabuse? Tranquilizers? Doctors? Psychiatrists? Churches? Hospitals? Jails? Alcohol? The federal or state government? Legalizing marijuana? Vitamins? Al-Anon?
- Can I honestly share my own personal experience concerning any of those without giving the impression I am stating the "AA opinion"?
- What in AA history gave rise to our Tenth Tradition?
- Have I had a similar experience in my own AA life?
- What would AA be without this Tradition? Where would I be?
- Do I breach this or any of its supporting Traditions in subtle, perhaps unconscious, ways?
- How can I manifest the spirit of the Tradition in my personal life outside AA? Inside AA?

Central Office will be closed October 9th in observance of Columbus Day

Concept Ten

Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority — the scope of such authority to be always well defined whether by tradition, by resolution, by specific job description or by appropriate charters and bylaws.

Our service structure requires that each operational responsibility is granted the corresponding authority, so it may function effectively. Remember, Concept I establishes that this services structure is rooted in delegation from AA groups. Once a person assumes a role within the service structure, that person needs authority to carry out his/her duties.

Bill W. warned against withholding such authority when he stated "...when delegated authority is operating well, it should not be constantly interfered with. [Otherwise]those charged with operating responsibly will be demoralized." In consideration of this, AA has implemented multiple procedural safeguards that allow for corrections and reorganization. For instance; although trusted servants have authority to do their work and achieve their responsibilities, that said authority is clearly defined, it is rarely the final authority, and it does not go unchecked. HYBRID!!! PI/CPC meets on the 4th Tuesday of the month at 7:00pm; Meeting ID: 976 6139 5578 Passcode: 397657 & In person at SRI Central Office 3215 E. Thunderbird Rd, Phoenix 85032

Concept Ten Checklist

Every service responsibility should be matched by an equal service authority, with the scope of such authority well defined.

- Do we understand "authority" and "responsibility" as they relate to group conscience decisions by G.S.R.s, D.C.M.s and our area delegates?
- Why is delegation of "authority" so important to the overall effectiveness of A.A.? Do we use the concept to define the scope of "authority"?

Deeper Rooted Emotional Problems

The Center Line of Life By Rick R.

We are all born with a Conscience and an Ego. We all have Instincts. We, as human beings, are also born with the Use of Practical Reasoning, and that separates us from the animals, who, for the most part, live by their instincts. The degree to which these assets and liabilities affect our behaviors differs in all of us. "Yet these instincts, so necessary for our existence, often far exceed their proper function. "(12&12 Step 4)" Most normal people make mistakes in their lives and that is normal since no one is perfect. Most Alcoholics, however, take their life to the brink of destruction before they become desperate enough to surrender and enter the program of Alcoholics Anonymous. (A.A.) Most alcoholics struggle with emotional difficulties that far exceed the normal range. Some of these troubles can be rectified simply by acknowledging that they exist and being willing to change our motives and behavioral habits.

Unfortunately, A certain percentage of our fellowship have Deeper Rooted Emotional Problems that are permanent and cannot be cured simply by practicing A.A. principles alone. They are often masked by the use of alcohol and when a person stops drinking and starts dealing with their behavioral problems, these things rise to the surface in the form of: O.C.D; A.D.D; Bipolar Disorder; P.T.S.D; and many others that can only be subdued by the use of medications that, in some cases, dulls the mind of the patient to the extent that they would resist taking the medication and would rather live with the symptoms. Not knowing this, we sometimes misunderstand the people stricken by these deeper-rooted mental conditions and believe, by their sharing, that they are Resistant, Arrogant or Egotistical etc. when displaying behaviors that the average person is not afflicted with. These conditions are not always at the extreme levels and each of us, being Alcoholics, have a degree or behavioral problems that are outside of the normal range else why would we need to attend AA meetings. Let us consider the normal range to be 5 degrees on either side of the center line. The extremes of the abnormal behavioral problems extend out to 50% on either side of the centerline. Let us take Fear as an example. Some people are so fearful they are afraid to leave their home, while others are so fearless that they may dive off a cliff into a pool of water. These are extremes, and we all fall somewhere in between. Those of us who are fortunate enough not to be afflicted by those pre-mentioned mental disorders, are blessed in the sense that, practicing the principles of Alcoholics Anonymous, can bring us back towards the center line and we can lead a somewhat normal life.

For those ill-fated ones afflicted by those conditions, they can stay sober, but the behaviors are still apparent to us and, unless we can recognize and replace the habit of Judging Them by Their Outward Behavior, we are still outside the normal range ourselves, and when we replace the habit of being judgmental with the habits of Compassion and Empathy, we are somewhat closer to the center line. We can change all those alcoholic behaviors when we recognize them, simply by looking deeper into our motives for our actions pointed out in the A.A, program. Steps Six and Seven begin this process of recognizing our defects of character, based on our thinking, and changing the shortcomings or actions that result from those thoughts. "There are those too who suffer from grave emotional and mental disorders but many of them do recover if they have the capacity to be honest." (BB pg. 58) My question is, do we have the capacity to be accepting when we recognize that some of us have these, uncontrollable deeper-rooted issues and that we cannot compare them to ourselves and be judgmental about these difficulties. Love, Compassion and Empathy are the center line positions in these cases. They need our understanding.

Valleywide Hospitals & Institutions Presents

2023 H&I Awareness Day

Saturday October 7th, 2023 10:30am-3:30pm 400 Old Litchfield Park Rd., Litchfield Park St. Peters Episcopal Church

Come join us for a fun day of fellowship and information on service opportunities with some awesome speakers!

We will be serving BBQ for lunch with a donation of a gently used "Big Book" or "12 X 12" and/or $10.00 for a meal.

Raffle Prizes 50/50 raffle

awareness_day@vwhi.org

150 raffle ODAA

The twelfth step-carrying the message-is the basic service that the AA Fellowship gives us; this is our principal and main reason for our existence.
